I'M AN AUSSIE DESI.

I AIM TO SAVE A LIFE ONE DAY.

AND LIVE BY THE MOTTO “MY KARMA MY LIFE”.

WHO DO I ASPIRE TO BE?

I'm an Aussie desi. I aim to save a life one day. And live by the motto "My Karma My Life".

Who do I aspire to be?
DID YOU KNOW?

• Just one organ and tissue donor can save up to 10 lives and improve the lives of dozens more.
• Almost 1600 people from all walks of life are currently waiting for organ transplants.
• The donation of one's organs is encouraged within the Hindu religion because it is an act of giving (dana) for the benefit of others.
• Organ and tissue donation happens quickly after a person dies. The donor's body is always treated with dignity and respect.
• To save a life as an organ and tissue donor, you need to let others know your wishes. You also need to know the wishes of the people close to you.

WHAT IS STOPPING YOU TO BECOME ONE TOO?

Almost anyone can be a donor and give the gift of life. While age and medical history is considered, you shouldn’t assume you are too old, too young or not healthy enough to donate.

DID YOU KNOW?

• Many Australians do not realise that, even if they have registered to be a donor, family consent will always be sought. That's why it is so important that, whatever you decide, the people close to you know your decision and you know theirs.

SO VISIT WWW.DONATELIFE.GOV.AU to discover the facts about organ and tissue donation decide and register your informed donation decision discuss your decision with the people close to you, and know each other's wishes.
